Outreach coaches will serve as a positive role model to young people of various backgrounds by instilling core values, healthy habits, and life skills in the lives of young people through golf.

WHY WE DO WHAT WE DO

- Concerns about children getting injured, the quality or behavior of coaches, and the emphasis on winning over having fun.
- 16 million American youth will reach the age of 19 without having had a mentor of any kind.
- 1 in 5 public high school students are dropping out

ABOUT THE FIRST TEE

We want every young person to have the very best shot at leading an exceptional life, and use the challenges and rewards of golf as a platform to teach the life skills necessary to do just that.
